The play, which was postponed last Saturday night at Vera, will be given Friday night, May 4th, at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be sold. Proceeds for charity fund at Blueridge Sanatorium.

Editor Bowers, of the Evening World, and author of Jefferson and Hamilton, has been selected to make the key-note speech at the Huston Convention and many Democrats, not delegates will go to hear once more the thrills and inspiration of real Democracy. Of course he will advise on the platform also.

Appomattox for real sport fully sustained her reputation Monday evening, when H. C. Crute, W. E. Wright, Paul Hass, of Cumberland; H. E. Button, Thomas Jenking and S. C. Bliss, of Farmville, joined Joe LeGrand's pack of hounds here for a red chase. Forty-odd dogs got in the chase and it was the prettiest we have ever witnessed

Come again gentlemen, Appomattox can always give you a chase.

Delegates are being chosen to the Democratic State Convention at Roanoke all over the State, and they are going uninstructed, which means they will elect an uninstructed delegation to Houston. Governor Smith will more than likely get the Virginia delegation. The delegates for this county will most likely be selected at June court. The county committee has issued no call yet, but that will probably be the date of the meeting to select delegates. Some speaker is to be here to address the voters on the constitutional amendments at June court.

The Liberty group of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Appomattox Baptist Association of which Mrs. T. L. Christian is leader, will meet at Liberty church, this village, Sunday afternoon, May 6th, at 3 o'clock. There are seven churches in the group as follows: Hebron, Spout Spring, Maple Grove, Reedy Spring, Fisher Memorial, Red Oak and Liberty. Delegates are expected from all the churches and Miss Mae Campbell, field worker of Richmond, Va., will be present and deliver the main address. All local W. M. S. organizations, including the Y. W. A'S. and G A'S. are expected to be largely represented. Every one welcome.

Covington—Coleman

Mr. Martin L. Covington and Miss Jane E. Coleman were united in marriage in Roanoke last Friday. These are Appomattox people and will make their home here. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Lewis Coleman and the groom is a well-known farmer of this county.

Covington-Cawthorn

Mr. Joel Walker Covington and Mrs. Annie Tweedy Cawthorn were united in marriage by Rev. Goad on Saturday, at the home of the bride's mother. These are well-known Appomattox citizens and will make their home at the late home of Joel W. Jenkins, which property is now owned by the bride.

ROCKS NEWS

Mrs. Hubert Martin has returned to her mother's home from a two weeks trip to Lynchburg.

There will be a play entitled "The Spinster's Convention" at Rocks school house Saturday night, May 5th, beginning at 8 o'clock. Everybody come and see these old maids transformed into bloom'ng young ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Pugh and daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Marsh Sunday.

PAMPLIN

Those who attended the W. C. T. U. Convention in Lynchburg were: Mrs. Parker, Mrs. E. E. Walker, Mrs. O. E. Peterson, Mrs. H. T. Terry and Miss Willie Rayon.

Mrs. John Pointsinger, of South Hill, was the recent guest of Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Walker.

Mrs. Lacy Dickerson is ill in Lynchburg hospital. We trust she will soon recover.

Mrs. Wiley Richardson and daughter, Grace, visited their relatives at Appomattox recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Harvey spent the week-end at Phenix.

The play "Hoodoo" recently given by the senior class of Pamplin High School was quite a success.

Rev. Rendrick, of the State Missionary Board, will begin a series of services at the Baptist church Sunday.

Mr. Walter Murphey and son, Harris, spent Sunday with home people.

MRS. MARY KATHERINE BERKLEY

It is with profound sorrow that we record the passing homeward of Mrs. Berkley on Sunday, April 21. The end came and words cannot express the sorrow that rests upon the hearts of her loved ones. She was a lovely person, sympathetic, affectionate and loyal to her friends. Her life was unselfish and beautiful in its simplicity. She was a faithful and devoted member of the Presbyterian church at Phenix, and was laid to rest in Spring Creek cemetery. Dr. Hatcher, her life long friend had charge of the service, other ministers present who assisted in the service were: Revs. Byron, Bettinger, Pankey, Harris and Rogers.

The funeral designs were both numerous and beautiful, special mention should be made of the lovely design given by her cathechism class of 1900.

Besides her husband, Mr. William Berkley, she leaves four children; Mrs. E. D. Carwile, of Pamplin; Mrs. D. S. Gauldin, of Keysville; Miss. Bessie Berkley and Charlie Berkley, of Phenix.

We extend to the loved ones our most heart-felt sympathy.

Sleep on Beloved,
Take thy rest,
We loved thee well,
But Jesus loved thee best.

Parent-Teachers Association

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association will be held on May 10, 1928, at 2 P. M, with the following program:

1 Song—America The Beautiful.

2 Invocation—Rev. Trent.

3 Some things parents can do to make our School a better School—J. A. Burke.

4 The embarrassment caused by irregular and part-time pupils—Prof. Crawley.

5 Can the Farmer afford to keep his 14-year-old boy in school from September to June?—R. E. Redding.

6 After all, are we raising Corn and Hogs, or building Men and Women?—A. R. Harwood.

7 Our 1927-'28 teachers, an appreciation—R. L. Burke.

8 Business Meeting.

The Cawthorn orchestra will render special music at meeting.

The Amendments

Much, if not the weight of the argument against the amendment (known as proposal number 2 to be voted upon on June 19, 1928), which forbids the State to tax real estate and tangible personal property, is the great fear which the opponents have that, if this amendment is adopted and takes its place in the Constitution for the protection of the local governments from the State taking it again, that in a great crisis to the State it would bring ruin before our people, even if they were so disposed to vote it out of the Constitution.

I have this from one of its most distinguished and patriotic opponents. This fear he has spread far and wide. Let us suppose the calamity appears twelve or fifteen months after the amendment to section 171 is adopted. We are certainly in fine shape financially now. We will suppose there is a deficit as large as the State's last receipts from real estate in 1926 which was $3,500,000. The Governor could call the present Legislature for a week, say in July, 1929, the month after the financial report of State, put the resolution through in time for the advertisement of the amendment for three months before the election of the General Assembly in November, 1929. So it could be submitted in less than a year after the calamity appears, and also supposes the Legislature cannot economize on a single thing.

As far as the State is concerned, we have already passed the danger point, as the State has survived the first year's deduction of $3,500,000 on real estate. Who can look at the figures below from the State Treasurer's office and doubt that the State's great growth in finances justifies with absolute comfort the enlargement of our best advertisement to the world, as far as taxes are concerned: the State does not tax real estate, the State does not tax tangible personal property, the State does not permit assessments on home owners for street and roadbed improvement, and has bound itself not to do these things in the State Constitution, and prospers more when the State does not do it than when the State did.

The figures follow:

September 30, 1910, receipts, $7,714,689.80: disbursements, $7,832,251.29.

September 30, 1911, receipts, $8,725,555 80; disbursements,$8,613,449.65.

September 30, 1912, receipts, $9,328,401.82: disbursements,$9,269,067.

September 30, 1913, receipts, $9,502,561.28: disbursements,$9,060,268.48.

September 30, 1914, receipts, $9,890,596.50; disbursements,$9,342,019.95.

September 30, 1915, receipts, $10,481,188.36; disbursements, $10,140,091 30.

September 30, 1916, receipts, $10,213,957.87: disbursements, $10,606,928.60.

September 30, 1917, receipts, $11,566,994.98; disbursements, $11,484,987.61.

September 30, 1918, receipts, $12,780,422.12; disbursements, $12,259,075 94.

September 30, 1919, receipts, $15,813,986 20; disbursements, $15,186,910.59.

September 30, 1920, receipts, $21,272,847.05; disbursements, $19,645,530.20.

September 30, 1921, receipts, $24,916,678.88; disbursements, $25,658,214.08.

September 30, 1922, receipts, $29,882,325.50; disbursements, $30,529,619.57.

June 30, 1924, receipts, $27,192,279 76; disbursements, $27,324,737.60.

June 30, 1925, receipts, $35,503,068.06; disbursements, $36,323,644.57.

June 30, 1926, receipts, 36,671,421.56; disbursements, $36,319,896.04.

June 30, 1927, receipts, $35,476,938.83; disbusements, $36,572,761.07.

E. C. FOLKES,
Richmond, Va.

We shall vote for amendments one and two which revises the constitution generally and segregates to the counties and cities the right of taxing land and tangible personal property, and at the same time takes the power away from the State to tax same.

We shall vote against number three, four and five, which proposes to take away from the people the right to elect Commissioner of Agriculture, Superintendent of Public Instruction and Treasurer of the State. These amendments are known as the short ballot, which places the appointment of these officers in the hands of the Governor.

The people should reserve to themselves the right of the ballot and should never tolerate any scheme or device which will restrict or circumscribe it in any way. If the people vote wrong for Governor they are not to make the same mistake when voting on constitutional amendments.

Lesson for May 13

JESUS ENTERS JERUSALEM

LESSON TEXT—Mark 11:1-33.
GOLDEN TEXT—Behold, thy King cometh unto thee; He is just, and having salvation.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Hailing Jesus as King.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Hailing Jesus as King.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Kingly Qualities of Jesus.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Asserts Messianic Authority.

I. Jesus Officially Presented to the Jewish Nation as King—vv. 1-11).

This should not be designated the triumphal entry, for it was so only in outward appearances. The shouts were empty and meaningless. It was the promised King publicly offering Himself to the nation.

1. The preparation (vv. 1-6).

(1) Two disciples sent for the ass (vv. 1-3).

He told them just where to go to find it, and how to answer the owner's inquiry. The providing of this animal was the working out of the divine plan according to Christ's foreknowledge.

(2) Obedience of the disciples (vv. 4-6). Without asking why, they go at His bidding. The command may have seemed strange and unreasonable, but they rendered explicit obedience.

2. The entry into Jerusalem (vv. 7-10).

(1) The disciples put their garments upon the ass and set the Lord upon it (v. 7). This act showed their recognitio. of Him as their King (II Kings 9:13).

(2) The multitude (vv. 8, 9). Some spread their garments in the way; others who had no garments to spare cut down branches and strewed them in the way, which was just as acceptable unto Him. This entry was in fulfillment of a prophecy uttered some five hundred years before (Zech. 9:9). They uttered the very cry which the prophet foretold. This is a clew to enable one to understand the prophecies which are unfulfilled as yet. If the prediction of His first coming was thus literally fulfilled, we must believe that those of His second coming will likewise be literally fulfilled. The prediction of Zechariah 14:3-11 will be just as literally fulfilled as that of Zechariah 9:9.

(3) The Lord's action (v. 10).

Upon entering the temple, He looked around upon all things; but as it was eventide He withdrew to Bethany with the twelve.

II. Jesu Exercising His Royal Authority (vv. 12-19).

1. The barren fig tree cursed (vv. 12-14).

The fig tree is typical of the Jewish nation. The fruit normally appears on the fig tree ahead of the leaves. The presence of the leaves is the assurance of fruit. This was an acted parable of the Lord's judgment on Israel for pretension of being the chosen people without the fruits thereof.

2. The temple cleansed (vv. 15-19).

For the various sacrifices in the temple, many oxen, sheep and doves were needed. Many persons came from the distant parts of the land; therefore it was impracticable for them to bring their sacrifices with them, so they brought money and bought the animals needed. This privilege the law had granted to them (Deut. 14:24-26), for the exchange was necessary. When evil men used it as an opportunity for gain it became an offense before God. It defiled His house. Jesus made Himself a scourge of cords and drove out the money changers, overthrowing their tables and putting out their money. By this act He declared Himself to be the Lord of the temple and one with God. That which God intended to be a "house of prayer for all nations" was made a "den of thieves." This action symbolized the call of the nation to repentance.

III. Jesus' Authority Challenged (vv. 27-33).

They challenged Him to show by what authority He accepted the honors of the Messiah, and who gave Him the authority to cast out the money changers. This seemed to place Jesus in a dilemma. He responded by a question which placed them in a counter dilemma. Since John was His forerunner, the divinity of His commission rested upon that of John. They were powerless to discredit John, for the people accepted him as God's prophet. If they had accepted John's message they would have been prepared to accept His. They weakly confessed that they could not answer the question.

Route to Glory

"He must increase, but I must decrease.' This is your route to glory. Unless He increases in your life and you decrease, your life will be contrary to what He wants it to be. In fact, it will be fruitless. In all things He must have the pre-eminence if you would be fruitful for Him."

Worthy Qualities

A man cannot persistently admire worthy qualities and not eventually partake of them.—Brown.

FOREST VIEW

The few hot day last week, after several inches of falling snow in the adjoining states the week before, spoiled us to a certain extent, as this week we have to have a winter fire. The weather is hard on the gardens. We hope the bean beetles and other pests will get tired of the changeable weather and migrate to other parts.

The revival services began at Central Baptist church last Sunday at 11 o'clock, the regular preaching day. The pastor, Rev. Goad, has Rev. A. I. Caudle as helper. Rev. Caudle preached a wonderful sermon on Sunday night, and we hope much good may be realized.

Mrs. Lawrence Laughlin and little daughter, Hellas, of Lynchburg, are spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ford. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ford, of Appomattox, spent Sunday in this home.

We are sorry Mrs. Daniel Cawthorn near Central continues ill. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. L. E. Nash, of Lynchburg, visited the children at the home of T. J. Nash last Sunday, she was accompanied by her sister, Miss Emma Harvey, and her friends also, Mr. and Mrs. Gunter, of Evergreen.

Miss Olive Lewis, teacher at Petty's Fork, visited in the home of R. W. Martin last week.

Miss Bessie Martin and brother, Rexford, called on Miss Lewis at the home of N.D. Marshall recently.

We are sorry to know Mrs. Travis Lee broke her arm, we hope she will soon be o.k.

Oakville

Mrs. T. E. Owen, who was very badly hurt several weeks ago, but is now improving slowly, was entertained by a birthday dinner, last Friday evening. The following friends were present: Misses Carrie Erza Martin, Mattie Moss, Mary Coleman, Mr. Frank Coleman, Mesdames. Mollie Thorp, O. W. Martin and E. B. Martin. All seemed to enjoy it very much.

The Oakville Community League held its regular meeting last Wednesday evening, May 2, at seven o'clock. Rev. Thompson gave an interesting talk on "Community", all who were present enjoyed it very much.

There was a ball game here last Saturday, Liberty Chapel playing Oakville. Score 19 to 4 in favor of Oakville.

The Jefferson Literary Society of Oakville high school gave a short health program last Friday and the program was followed by a talk by Rev. Trent, which was an interesting as well as helpful talk on "Five Pointers". The parents were invited for the day and many of them were present and we were glad to have them.

The Oakville Baccalaureate sermon at Red Oak church, Sunday night, at 8 o'clock by Rev. Redding. The graduating exercises will be held on Friday, May 18, at 8 o'clock. The following are looking forward to graduation: Alise Martin, Vennie Hamilton, Mary J. Martin, Isabelle Martin, Madeline Bingham, Eston Harvey and Elizabeth Coleman.

There will be a play at Oakville May 19, given by Liberty Chapel school.

STONEWALL

A few farmers have been planting corn, others are waiting for warmer weather. Tobacco plants are reported small and late this season.

The play "Always In Trouble" was quite a success given at Stonewall Friday night. Quite a nice sum was realized for the benefit of the school.

Mr. J. A. Stratton is confined to his bed with gripp. Mrs. Stratton, who was visiting in Lynchburg, was called home last week on account of the illness of Mr. Stratton.

Mrs. A. A. Babcock and little daughter, June Starke, of Gladstone, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S.L.Scruggs, last week. Mr. Babcock spent Saturday night in the Scruggs home and Mrs. Babcock and baby accompanied him home Sunday.

Misses Frances Stratton and Anna LeGrand, of Lynchburg, were week-end guests of Mr. J. A. Stratton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Drinkard and Glenn Drinkard, of Lynchburg, were Sunday guests of W. H. Drinkard and family.

Beckham

Farmers are quite busy planting corn, gardening and preparing for other crops.

We are sorry to report that Mr. S. R. Martin is very sick.

Mrs. T. M. Taylor is very much improved, after a long illness.

Miss Ina Moore has returned home after a long stay with relatives at Stapleton.

Mrs. E. A. Martin who is in hospital again is reported getting along nicely.

Mrs. C. A. Moore spent a few days last week with relatives at Appomattox.

School closes May 18, we will be sorry to give up our nice teacher, Miss Nell Cawthorn.

Mrs. Mary Marks, Misses Elnor Grow, Ina Moore, Messrs. Ray Moore, and Cliff Coleman, motored to Lexington last Sunday for the day, they also visited Mrs. Woody Padget, beyond East Lexington, a very nice time reported.

LOST
Time from Work

Mr. Albert Garland, of Somerset, Ky., recently said:

"I used to work in the mines, but lost quite a bit of time on account of sick spells I had. I would get to having a bad taste in my mouth, and a very dull, tired feeling and ache.

"My mother told me to try Black-Draught, which I did, and after a few doses I felt much better. Now I take it as soon as I feel the least bad, and I don't get down. I certainly can say that it has done more for me than any other medicine I have ever taken.

"I never get without Black-Draught. If I go on a visit, I take a package along in my suitcase. My health is better now than it has been in years."

Black-Draught is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, of highest quality. Price 25c. Try it.
